

Sudbury Area Caves VCA Trip, 19Mar06

Contributed by John Dunham
Saturday, 17 March 2007
Last Updated Monday, 19 March 2007

A VCA trip to 1867 Cave, Bear Bones Cave, and the Caves of the Vales, all near Sudbury, VT

The entrance to 1867 Cave

A twisting passage

A very dead bat

Calcite decorations

Calcite choke

Some flowstone on the walls

Looking up at a twist in the passage

The carved date 1867, from whence comes the cave's name

The entrance into Bear Bones Cave

Looking back up the entrance chimney

Some decorations

One of the cave's namesakes

Another bear bone

Looking upward from the base of the cave

The entrance to Cave of the Vales #1